13. State concisely every ground on which you claim that you are being held unlawfully. State specifically the facts supporting each ground. You should raise in this petition all available grounds (relating to this conviction) on which you are being held in custody unlawfully, and you should state all the facts sufficient to support each ground. DO SO NOW; because of recent changes in the law you may not be given an opportunity to amend your petition later (See instructions, number 7.).

Grounds: There was another individual out on a Gagnon I also on parole who violated + caused all this + I had only did a 48 + walked. This case was clearly not handled properly. And I was given a very crooked deal while someone else was let go.

14. If any of the grounds listed were not previously presented in any other court, state or federal, state briefly what grounds were not so presented, and give your reasons for not presenting them: They said they were only worried about me. But on top of being in trouble + out on a gagnon I. She had at least 4 more charges coming from this incident.

She spent there + watched me be beat up, was drunk + doing drugs nothing was done, cause her parents have money.
